

Dear Savior, Bless the Children

Author Unknown

Melchior Vulpius

Dear Savior, bless the children
Who've gathered here today.
Oh send Your Holy Spirit,
And teach us how to pray.

Dear Lord, will You not help us
Obey Your great command,
And send Your blessed Gospel
Abroad through every land

May missionaries carry,
The message of Your love.
The wonderful salvation
Christ brought us from above.

Lord, bless the work we're doing;
Oh, bless our gifts, though small;
And hear our prayer for His sake
Who died to save us all.

Bible Verse: Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6
